VIETNAM PANORAMA

CODE: VN-AR 00-1

HANOI - HA LONG - HUE - HOI AN - QUY NHON - NHA TRANG - DA LAT – SAI GON - CU CHI – BEN TRE

Sixteen days of the best that Vietnam has to offer, and more. This tour spans the country from Hanoi, on the Red River Delta, and Ha Long Bay's emerald green waters, to the welcoming ancient town of Hoi An, the formidable capital of Hue in the centre, then on to Ho Chi Minh City and the Mekong Delta in the far South. It is a tour that is an enthralling introduction to the vast changes in the landscape and culture of Vietnam. The days will be filled with enchanting experiences, linked efficiently by road, rail or air. Here you will experience ancient citadels, temples, pagodas and churches, junks and beautiful beaches, massive river deltas and more. Come and join us now!

Day 1 Arrive Hanoi

Arrive at Noi Bai airport and transfer to your hotel in Hanoi. Free time at your leisure. Accommodation in Hanoi.

Day 2 Hanoi Breakfast

Here we will spend a day exploring enchanting Hanoi. We start with a visit to the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, then the impressive, but simple house on stilts that was Ho's former residence, and the One Pillar Pagoda, before taking a walk in the ancient Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first university established during the construction of the capital in 1070. In the afternoon, we visit the Ethnological Museum, the most interesting museum in Hanoi. Then we take an hour Cyclo tour viewing the charming French colonial architecture of the bustling Old Quarter and attend a performance of the unique water puppetry.

Day 3 Hanoi - Ha Long Breakfast - Lunch - Dinner

This morning, we depart for Ha Long Bay. Passing through the rich farmland of the Red River Delta, we enjoy the lush scenery and photo opportunities. Arriving at Ha Long Pier, check-in and cruise through the spectacular islands rising from the tranquil emerald sea. Enjoy sumptuous on-board seafood and explore Sung Sot Cave, one of the most beautiful caves in the bay. Witness a splendid sunset. Dinner and overnight on your boat.

Day 4 Ha Long – Hanoi – Hue Brunch

Early morning coffee and tea will be served on the sundeck followed by a Tai Chi class. We continue exploring magnificent Ha Long Bay. Change to a small motor or rowing boat to discover a floating village. When you return to the junk, a sumptuous meal, combining Vietnamese and Western cuisine, will be served. On leaving the cruise, transfer directly to Hue. Accommodation.

Day 5 Hue - Da Nang - Hoi An Breakfast

Today, we have opportunity to explore Hue, one of Vietnam's most cultural and historical cities, once ruled by the Emperor of the Nguyen dynasty. We take time to visit the imposing Citadel and cruise on the Perfume River to admire the ancient Thien Mu Pagoda. The remainder of our time we are free to explore the crowded market of Dong Ba, where we can bargain for anything from souvenirs and bronze goods, to Hue sesame sweetmeat and conical poem hats.

In the afternoon, we continue to discover Hue and visit the impressive tombs of King Khai Dinh. We then cross the spectacular Hai Van Pass to Da Nang city and visit the best Cham museum before continuing to Hoi An, an ancient town of meandering narrow streets dating back to the 16th century.

Day 6 Hoi An Breakfast

Nestled a couple of kilometers inland on Thu Bon river, Hoi An is typified by its rich mix of 16th century Vietnamese, Chinese and Japanese architecture. A full day city tour includes the ancient Japanese Bridge, Phuoc Kien Pagoda, the ancient house Tran Phu and the Hoi An Museum. In the afternoon, wander the old town and soak in the atmosphere of its original culture, enjoy shopping for tailor made clothing, lanterns, shoes and food, or simply relax on the beach or be tempted to enjoy the local cuisine in one of the many local restaurants. You won't be disappointed.

Day 7 Hoi An - Quy Nhon Breakfast

After breakfast we drive along the spectacular coastal road, passing fertile rice fields, and pausing at Sa Huynh beach. We arrive at Quy Nhon for our overnight stop. This part of Vietnam is among the most unspoiled in Asia. The Cham influence is very obvious and adds to the special ambience of this spectacular and charming part of Vietnam.

Day 8 Quy Nhon Breakfast - Lunch

In the morning, we depart to Nhon Ly. On the way, you can see the longest bridge in Vietnam that crosses the sea called Thi Nai. Arrival at the pier of Ky Co, move to a cano. Ky Co is one of the most beautiful beaches in Vietnam with blue water, long and white sand. In the afternoon, return to the land and visit Eo Gio. Return to the hotel and accommodation in Quy Nhon. Note: According to the weather conditions, you will visit Ky Co Island or Hon Kho Island.

Day 9 Quy Nhon - Nha Trang Breakfast

Continuing south on Highway One, we pause at the well-known Cham Thap Nhan tower, built on a hilltop overlooking the town. We then arrive and the magnificent beach town of Nha Trang.

Day 10 Nha Trang Breakfast

Spend a relaxing day around Nha Trang, visiting the Nha Trang Oceanography Institute where offers interesting exhibits of local marine life, including over 20,000 live and preserved marine specimens. Afterwards, we will visit the Long Son Pagoda, Hon Chong and one of Vietnam's most impressive Cham towers - Po Nagar. Free time at the local Dam market.

Day 11 Nha Trang - Da Lat Breakfast

Departing the coast for the French hill station of Da Lat, we pass Cam Ranh naval base and visit a Cham tower, dedicated to King Po Klong Garai. On the way, we explore the Prenn Falls, the Thousand Flower Valley. Pine forests are a feature of this region and you will enjoy Da Lat's fresh mountain air and admire its many old French villas. You might enjoy an optional round of golf in the afternoon.

Day 12 Da Lat Breakfast

This morning, we travel through the lush countryside to the peak of Langbian Mountain and view the spectacular panorama of Da Lat city. We then explore the Lat Village, one of the ethnic minority villages in the Central Highlands. In the afternoon, enjoy the Tuyen Lam Lake, Truc Lam Pagoda (one way by cable cab if preferred) and the optional Da Lat flower park.

Day 13 Da Lat - Ho Chi Minh City Breakfast

After a stop at the colorful flower market, we head down to exciting Ho Chi Minh City or Saigon, as the locals still call it. Once known as The Paris of the Orient, Saigon still exudes its raffish charm of the past. On arrival at your hotel, the rest of the day is free for you to explore this fascinating city.

Day 14 Ho Chi Minh City - Cu Chi Breakfast

This morning, we tour this bustling city and its historic boulevards; visiting Notre Dame Cathedral, the Reunification Palace, the historic post office and the War Remnants museum. Later, we visit Ben Thanh, which has been in existence since the French occupation. Here you can test your bargaining prowess and maybe pick up a bargain. In the afternoon, we drive about an hour west of Saigon and explore the underground tunnels in Cu Chi, used by Vietnamese guerrillas during the war against the French and US forces, then back to Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 15 Ho Chi Minh City – Ben Tre Breakfast

This morning, we will depart for Ben Tre province. On arrival, pick up at Phong Nam Pier and take the boat on along the Chet Say river. Stop at brickwork – coconut charcoal making and coconut husking. Visit one of the plenty of coconut processing workshops where coconut candies are made and have a chance to learn the coconut candies making process located along canal. # BEACH ESCAPE

Inclusions: 2 night hotel accommodation, daily breakfast, return airport pick up, transfers.

Hoi An Code: VN-HBC 00-10

About one hour flight from Hanoi or Ho Chi Minh City is Da Nang, the third largest city in Vietnam and a major seaport. With its beautiful beaches, famous for their soft white sand, Da Nang, Hoi An and Da Nang Beach have historic connections from the 16th century or to more recent conflicts during the French occupation and the later American war. Da Nang was the site of a huge US presence and the area around the city saw much fighting. An earlier civilization, the Cham, had a much longer and positive influence, not only to this region, but also further south. Many Cham temples and ruins still remain. An abundance of affordable fresh seafood and a mild climate make these locations a must for any visit to Vietnam tour program. Hoi An, with its relaxed atmosphere, unique cuisine and friendly locals, has made it a mecca for visitors to Vietnam.

Nha Trang Code: VN-HBC 00-11

A trip to Nha Trang is a must for anyone looking for a perfect tropical escape from the hustle and bustle of the city, an opportunity to sit back and enjoy life. The diving in Nha Trang is some of the best in the region, with fully qualified PADI dive operators. Clients come from all over the world to dive in Nha Trang. The islands off the coast are surrounded by clear tropical waters, perfect for all types of water sports. As well as perfect beaches, there are also ancient Champa towers, natural mud baths, river cruises to local ethnic minority villages, and great food, with an emphasis on seafood. There is a wide range of accommodation, as in the rest of Vietnam, from budget to one of the best resorts in the world.

Phan Thiet Code: VN-HBC 00-12

About three hours drive from Ho Chi Minh City is another relaxing and unique location; Phan Thiet. Here you will experience a tropical getaway that surpasses your expectations. It is now on the world map for the best resorts and locations to visit, with many of the larger resort chains establishing themselves here. Naturally, this would not be possible without an ideal environment of great beaches, water sports and all the luxuries required for a holiday of a lifetime. The sand dunes of Phan Thiet are unique to this part of the world and are a photographer's dream. All this, coupled with some 8th century Cham ruins, makes this a destination one of the most special in Vietnam.

Phu Quoc Code: VN-HBC 00-13

Phu Quoc, in the Gulf of Thailand, is a short flight from busy Ho Chi Minh City. It is the largest island of a group of 16 islands on the scenic and forested archipelago in Kien Giang province. Much of the island is national park, but boasts some world class accommodation and some unique and cosy cafes and restaurants. It is the ideal tropical getaway spot to recharge the batteries.

Day 1 Ho Chi Minh City
Arrival in Ho Chi Minh city and transfer to your centrally located hotel. Free time at our leisure.

Day 2 Ho Chi Minh City - Cu Chi Breakfast
This morning, we tour this bustling city and its historic boulevards; visiting Notre Dame Cathedral, the Reunification Palace, post office and the War Remnants Museum. In the afternoon, we drive about an hour west of Saigon and explore the underground tunnels in Cu Chi, used by Vietnamese guerrillas during the war against the French and US forces; then back to Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 3 Ho Chi Minh City – Hue Breakfast
Today we travel to Hue and visit the forbidding Citadel where the Emperors of the Nguyen dynasty reigned from 1802 to 1945. In the afternoon, we cruise the beautiful Perfume River to see the Thien Mu Pagoda and the ornate Minh Mang Tomb. Later we visit the Dong Ba market where you can test your bargaining skills.

Day 4 Hue - Da Nang - Hoi An Breakfast
We cross the spectacular Hai Van Pass to reach Da Nang city, where we can see the Cham museum, then continue to Hoi An, an ancient town of meandering narrow streets dating back to the 16th century. An afternoon tour is a chance to see the Japanese Bridge, Phuoc Kien Pagoda, the ancient house Tran Phu and the Hoi An Museum. Later, we can shop for tailor made clothing, lanterns, shoes and food, or simply relax at one of the towns many cosy cafes.

Day 5 Hoi An - Da Nang – Hanoi Breakfast
After breakfast we fly to Hanoi, a green city with its historic French villas. We visit the Ethnological Museum, one of the most interesting in Hanoi. Then, we view the ancient Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first university and take an hour cyclo tour to discover the heart of Hanoi - the bustling Old Quarter - where the narrow streets buzz and bustle with the life of city. It is a shopper's delight, with its beautiful silks, linen, and Vietnamese artefacts. To finish the day, we attend the performance of the famous Vietnamese water puppetry.

Day 6 Hanoi - Ha Long Breakfast - Lunch - Dinner
This morning, we depart for Ha Long Bay. Passing through the rich farmland of the Red River Delta, we enjoy the lush scenery and photo opportunities. Arriving at Ha Long Pier, check-in and cruise through the spectacular islands rising from the tranquil emerald sea. Enjoy sumptuous on-board seafood and explore Sung Sot Cave, one of the most beautiful caves in the bay. Witness a splendid sunset. Dinner and overnight on your boat.

On leaving the cruise, return to Hanoi and free time.

Day 8 Hanoi - Luang Prabang Breakfast
This morning, we fly to Luang Prabang. Upon arrival, we will be greeted by our guide and transferred to our hotel. Luang Prabang is one of the most well preserved cities in South East Asia. During our time here, we visit the impressive stupa of Wat Visoun and the shrines of Wat Aham and Wat Mai. We then climb of the summit Mount Phousi and explore the sacred, gilded stupa and have a panoramic view of the city and the Mekong River. We explore the Night Market, where we can find a beautiful selection of handmade textiles made by local and hill tribe people surrounding Luang Prabang.

Day 9 Luang Prabang - Pak Ou Cave Breakfast
Today, we visit the temple of Wat Sene and the magnificent Wat Xiengthong with its roofs sweeping low to the ground, which represents classical Laotian architecture. We then embark on a Mekong cruise upstream giving us a breathtaking view of the tranquil countryside as well as time to explore the mysterious Pak Ou Caves, two linked caves crammed with thousands of gold lacquered Buddha statues of various shapes and sizes left by pilgrims. Along the way, we stop at the village of Ban Xanghai, where they make the local rice wine. Later on, we take a short drive to Ban Phanom, a small village known for its hand weaving.

Day 10 Luang Prabang - Khouangsi Waterfall Breakfast
An optional early start gives us the unique opportunity to participate in the daily morning rituals of saffron-clad monks collecting offerings or alms (often in the form of sticky rice) from the faithful residents. This tradition is unique to Laos, being one the few Buddhist nations still observing the ritual. From here we visit the morning Phousi morning market with its diverse and unusual products such as dried buffalo skin, local tea or saltpeter sold with chickens, vegetables and hill-tribe weavings. Laos is also known for its traditional crafts, and today we will visit the ethnic minority groups at Ban Ouay, an H'mong village, Ban Ou, Laoloum village and Ban Thapene, all Khmu villages. A dramatic change of scenery is the beautiful Khouangsi waterfall where we can cool off with a refreshing swim in the pool or walk along the forest. On our return to Luang Prabang, we stop at Ban Xangkhong, a village well known for its silk weavings and for its Saa (jute) papermaking. We admire the sunset at Wat Siphouthabath. Overnight in Luang Prabang.

Cancellation Policy (Land Services)

- Cancellations must be submitted in writing and will be subject to the following cancellation fees per person:
- More than 45 days before arrival: No charge.
  - 31 to 44 days before arrival: 30% of the total cost.
  - 21 to 30 days before arrival: 50% of the total cost.
  - 0 to 20 days before arrival: 75% of the total cost.
  - 0 to 9 days before arrival or in case of no-show: 100% of the total cost.

Important Notice:

During peak travel seasons (e.g., Christmas, New Year, and National Holidays) or for luxury accommodations, the cancellation policy may differ. Any such variations will be communicated on a case-by-case basis.

Flight Cancellation & Payment Policy

- Airfares are subject to change without prior notice.
- The above cancellation and payment policies do not apply to flights. Each airline has its own cancellation and refund policies, which will be specified individually in our confirmation details.
